Recent research has revealed that psychological trauma can result from common occurrences such as traffic accidents, breakup of a significant relationship, domestic violence, suffering from a life-threatening illness or other similar situations. More importantly, even when unrecognized, psychological trauma can create lasting difficulties in an individual's life. In this workshop, various local professionals will be sharing their experiences in best practices for managing traumatic events. A wide range of topics, including hidden agenda behind everyday mood problems, psychiatric, psychological and sociocultural perspectives on management of trauma, would be addressed. Professionals who are interested in the field of psychological trauma are all welcomed.
